programmes

Ashiana Network's purpose is to:

- ◆ Empower Black & Minority Ethnic (BME) women, particularly South Asian, Turkish and Middle Eastern women who are experiencing all forms of Violence Against Women & Girls (VAWG) including domestic violence, sexual violence and harmful practices such as forced marriage, honour based violence, female genital mutilation with support and safe housing - enabling them to make positive and appropriate choices for themselves.
- ◆ Provide counselling to women and girls who are experiencing VAWG.
- ◆ Raise awareness of VAWG and carry out preventative work with the community as a whole.

Who we are

Since its inception in 1989, Ashiana Network has developed and expanded its services and the client group it serves.

We provide specialist services for women and girls aimed at empowering them to make informed choices and decisions about their future.

Our services

Housing

Kyra, Zafina & Saranaya*

Ashiana provides temporary refuge accommodation across three schemes.

We have 21 bed spaces for South Asian, Turkish and Middle Eastern Women between the ages of 16-35, who are experiencing all forms of Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG); including domestic violence, sexual violence, harmful practices, such as forced marriage, honour based violence and female genital mutilation. Service users are offered a holistic package of support from a multi-disciplinary team including culturally specific support, confidential advice and advocacy around health, housing, legal, educational and financial matters. Service users can expect to stay at Ashiana for up to a maximum of two years and are supported to seek alternative accommodation, such as shared housing, private rented and social housing. Resettlement support is offered for a period of 6 months. Ashiana does not guarantee access to move on accommodation.

* these services are specifically for South Asian, Turkish & Middle Eastern women.

Referral Criteria for Housing Services

- ◆ All women from South Asian, Turkish and Middle Eastern Communities
- ◆ Women between the age of 16-35
- ◆ Women without children
- ◆ Women experiencing domestic violence and/or sexual violence

- ◆ Women affected by harmful practices such as forced marriage, honour-based violence, female genital mutilation
- ◆ Women with no recourse to public funds
- ◆ Women who are homeless as a result of domestic violence
- ◆ Women with low/medium support needs

Women who do not come from South Asian, Turkish or Middle Eastern communities will be considered if we can identify substantial similarities in their culture, religion or language, which will enable staff to offer a culturally appropriate service.

Support Groups

We offer a range of support groups open to women and girls 16+, which include:

- ◆ Moving Forward Psycho-educational group
- ◆ Specialist support group for BME women (8 weeks)

Advice

Specialist Advice & Support

This service offers specialist advice and support to women and girls who are experiencing all forms of VAWG. Intensive support and advocacy is provided including needs and risk assessment, information on rights, entitlements, access to refuge, welfare benefits, health, housing and immigration advice, reporting to the police, pursuing civil/criminal legal cases, taking out injunctions. We assess short and long term needs and risk to support a woman through her journey and enable resilience and recovery.

Immigration

This service offers legal advice and advocacy specifically for women with insecure immigration status. Some of the more destitute and vulnerable women are those that have no recourse to public funds and Ashiana's aim is to support them with access to specialist legal advice in order to resolve their immigration status.

Counselling

We offer confidential one-to-one counselling for women and girls who are or have been impacted by VAWG.

Specialist counselling offered is short term (6-15 sessions) and up to 20 sessions for harmful practices (forced marriage, honour based violence and female genital mutilation). It is provided by accredited qualified counsellors. Ashiana Network is a member of the British Association of Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP).

Education & Prevention

Our education and training work is conducted at a variety of levels with both statutory and voluntary agencies aimed at raising awareness about VAWG and related issues. Workshops and training can be provided on topics such as domestic violence, sexual violence, female genital mutilation, forced marriage and honour-based violence.

As part of the Whole School Approach, the community engagement service designs and delivers VAWG training and engagement programmes to the wider community. These programmes aim to raise awareness of VAWG amongst parents, teaching staff, faith based groups and community centres. Through this approach, the community engagement programme seeks to empower communities to identify and safeguard victims of VAWG and challenge harmful attitudes that enable VAWG to continue.
